Nancy Corbin appointed as Mortgage Lending deputy commissioner

LAS VEGAS — Nevada Mortgage Lending Division Commissioner Scott Bice today announced the appointment of Las Vegas resident Nancy Corbin, 54, as deputy commissioner. The state Mortgage Lending Division licenses and regulates mortgage bankers, mortgage brokers, mortgage agents, escrow agencies and escrow agents.

Prior to this appointment, Corbin served for 9 years as the deputy administrator of the Nevada Housing Division, where she had also worked as an administrative loan officer for 17 years.

“Ms. Corbin’s 31 years of real estate lending experience make her a logical fit for our industry, and her 19 years in supervision and management in the public sector will make for a seamless transition in our agency as well,” Bice said.

Corbin begins her appointment August 7, 2006, with an annual salary of $76,908.

Corbin replaces former Deputy Commissioner Susan Eckhardt who took a position in the private sector last month.
